Im participating in a "dont go on the forum quest" for a wishpoint becuase i really want more wishpoints and therefore will have to forsake all of my forum work for many months.

Just telling you since i know you also have no work to do whatsoever so you could manage the forum.

Cool story bro.

Pain 2: Peace forum work delayed for 3 months

lashtal: **nods to Peace** Kalimera

Chewett: Yo peace, the addition of the user to the necro forums will have to wait

Chewett: until i finish the "DO NOT GO ON THE FORUM" quest

Chewett: if you have issues please feel free to raise them with numerous felix or whatever his name is **Peace**: That is accepted, Chewett.

Chewett: its appearntly going to be at most 3 months

Chewett: which isnt going to be fun, but meh

Chewett: its a wishpoint, so clearly worth it? :))

**Peace**: Three months?

Chewett: yup

**Peace**: **chuckles** Anything for a wishpoint, I guess.

Chewett: indeed, quite a lot of pain for you guys ofc...

DARK DEMON: **yawns** Not sure if this is worth Black Water

Syrian: we can be the proof of pain you need to win that WP then chew

I am nowhere near a computer right now... so he did a QUEST that asks you not to be on the forum? Like for how long? And how is even possible to check that..

I don't understand what's in his mind, is this a joke?

I am participating in a quest to try and get a wishpoint which means i am not allowed to use the forum until the end.

This means i wont be able to do any forum work, nor bugs related work like checking bug reports.

Feel free to discuss the quest on the forum (for i wont be able to see it) or send recommendation as to what i should do as i wan to participate in this quest.

Ackshan is running it so you can talk to him if you want

Thanks

Someone who wants a wishpoint for specifically not doing his work.

Hello Chewett,

Good luck with the quest although we highly discourage such types of quests.

We can't stop the quest since no rules were broken but we encourage you and the community not to participate in it. The forum is a very important part of the game and encouraging players to stay out of it is definitely not how we want things to run.

If you feel this quest is wrong, then don't encourage it (we feel the same way so we might think of adding new rules in order to prevent them - but this is also up to the community and their feelings towards this type of quests).

Please keep us updated regarding your availability.

Pain 6: Felix asks me about my progress

Chewett: (crappy)

Chewett: (harder to work with MD not being able to access forum)

Chewett: (cant actually talk with public properly, cant ask for opinions...)

Syrian: (more pain? :p)

Chewett: (features i want to discuss, are now being left for months becuase i cant actually discuss them, just means that the things get delayed further)

Chewett: (no skin off my back, just means you guys dont get input on features nor get features at all)

Syrian: (well done felix )

: lashtal passed Skin to Chewett

Numerius Felix: (ironically Chewett seems to be the only one participating..even the people who actually understand it aren't going the distance. 3 months is a lot..which is why I didn't ask it)

Pain 7: Update to council

You requested that i update you as and when and i have recently been informed of the fact that the quest is actually meant to be endless and that it wont end until numerous deems there is a good enough submission. I did not know this when i started and would not have started the quest if i knew this.

He has stated that there wont be any judging for at least 3 months, this means i might be not reading or doing forum for much longer than the 3 months.

If you have any comments on my suggested action it would be useful. Mainly since i do not want to break my word on this quest and therefore will be unable to discuss some of the features i was discussing such as [REDACTED] which needs the publics view. This means the [REDACTED] will need to be delayed for a while.

Thanks
Chewett
